

I am writing in response to NAB petition 04-160. I believe having traffic and weather available on satellite radio is a valuable service and provides information I demand from the company. I subscribe to this subscription service and I see no reason why the NAB has a right to control the content of satellite radio broadcasts.